

Ben De Schryver

President, Barry Callebaut Asia Pacific
Member of the Executive Committee
as of Sept 1, 2017

Ben de Schryver has been President of Barry Callebaut in Region Asia Pacific since September 2016 and was promoted to member of the Executive Committee effective September 1, 2017.

Reporting to the CEO, Ben is responsible for managing all of Barry Callebaut's growth, P&L responsibility and operations across Asia Pacific which includes 9 chocolate and cocoa factories and 4 direct sales offices.

Ben De Schryver has been with Barry Callebaut in a variety of sales and finance roles since 1999. He started with Barry Callebaut in Belgium in 1999, transferring to Singapore in 2002 as CFO Region Asia Pacific, relocating to Canada as Director Pricing & Customer Services in 2007, before moving on to the company's new regional head office in Chicago in 2009 where he last served as CFO Americas before being appointed President Asia Pacific as of September 1, 2016.

Ben De Schryver (born 1974, Belgian national and a permanent resident of the United States), holds a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from University College in Ghent, Belgium.

August 2017