

CURRICULUM VITAEElio Leoni Sceti

Board member*
Barry Callebaut AG

Elio Leoni Sceti (born 1966) is an Italian national. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from LUISS Libera Università Internazionale di Studi Sociali in Rome, Italy, and a qualified post graduate as Dottore Commercialista.

Elio Leoni Sceti is the Chairman of LSG Holdings, a UK-based family office with interests in real estate, private equity and venture capital, a non-executive Director of ABInbev and an active investor and board advisor in early stage technology companies.

Elio was CEO of Iglo group (Iglo, Birdseye and Findus) until June 2015, when he led the sale to Nomad Foods. Under Elio's lead, Iglo launched an industry-wide campaign against Food Waste, as part of the Company's new CSR agenda.

He was previously CEO of EMI Music, until 2010, and led EMI's transformation from a traditional record label into a consumer-led and digitally connected music company.

Elio's international career was previously built in marketing and leadership roles while at Procter & Gamble (5 years) and Reckitt Benckiser (16 years), where he was EVP since 2001, as Global Head of Category Development & Innovation and as Head of Europe when he left in 2008.

Elio's roles in non-profit include being a Trustee and Counsellor at One Young World, (the global forum of future leaders from over 190 countries), and an advisory board member at Room to Read (promoting literacy and gender equality in education in developing world).

November 2017

* proposed for election to the Board to the Annual General Meeting